

My Faithful Friend,

What a challenging yet beautiful year in the Lord! He moved so miraculously in our lives with many surprises:

Prayer and worship with old and new friends in different locations, Zoom connections all over the world, new Israeli and Greek friends to share the gospel with, Passover and Sukkot dinners and so much more.....

We have grown more into His likeness, not without resistance at times, but glory to God, He has won our hearts and our will every time!

Wishing you a Blessed Christmas and New Year. May you see His goodness and His glory. May He bless you with His matchless grace. Thank you for your love, prayers and gifts. I am forever grateful.
